Available October Black Katz are thrilled to offer this top floor modern property in a former school house conversion . Everything from the approach to the building to the beautiful communal halls ooze with character peeking your interest with every turn. The apartment itself benefits from extremely high ceilings allowing for a generous mezzanine level reaching up into what would have been the roof of the old school gymnasium. However the crowning jewel of this fantastic property is the enormous feature window which commands your attention flooding every square inch with natural light.
